Entire Stock of Men's Clothing and Haberdashery

SENSATIONALLY SACRIFICED

THE Cee and Ell System, the great international tailoring firm, have decided to close out their Washington retail store and devote their entire attention, so far as this city is concerned, to the manufacture of men's high grade clothing for which they are so justly famous. This store being a manufacturers' retail outlet the original prices were at least five dollars ($5.00) per garment lower than any ordinary retail store could afford to ask. Being manufacturers, the buyer gets the benefit of the usual retailer's profit.

The building has already been sublet, so there's nothing to do but mark every article in stock at a price that must force its immediate removal. The following reductions have therefore been made throughout the entire stock.

Remember, these reductions are made on garments originally $5.00 underprice.

$15.00 Values (^{Regular} $10 Cee & Ell) Suits Cut to $6.60

$20.00 Values (^{Regular} $15 Cee & Ell) Suits Cut to $10.60

$30.00 Values (^{Regular} $25 Cee & Ell) Suits Cut to $17.60

A Complete Stock of Raincoats and Spring Overcoats

All This Haberdashery Is Brand New Stock

This new department was established only three or four months ago. At that time the stock was said to be the newest and most up-to-date in town. So this means no shop-worn bargains but bona-fide reductions in the fullest sense of the word.
